

COMMONWEALTH
EDUCATION TRUST

 Teach 2030

Whole School Programme Guide

The Commonwealth Education Trust is a charity with a mission to advance education across the Commonwealth. As an accredited organisation, it is part of the Commonwealth global family of fifty-four countries working together to solve global challenges. We are investing in the one consistent and most impactful resource in classrooms across the world – teachers.

We are building a Commonwealth community of teachers who change lives

Our Teach2030 programme combines low cost online professional development, contextualised for teachers working in hard to reach communities, with a programme of support enabling schools to run ongoing CPD independently whilst being supported by an in- country organisation.

Ready to continue learning?

The Teach2030 programme enables teachers to continue to develop their teaching practice throughout their career, by providing high quality digital courses that can be accessed on most connected devices.

Teach2030 in schools

We believe in the power of working with our colleagues. The Teach2030 programme is used most effectively as part of whole school Continuous Professional Development sessions (CPD).

What does this look like?

The Teach2030 whole-school programme has three key roles, each one vital for success.

Facilitator

You work for a partner organisation (i.e. teaching council, NGO or educational company). You help the head teacher to implement the programme in their school.

supported by

Head Teacher

You oversee the Teach2030 programme as well as nominate and support the Teach2030 coach(es). Your commitment is key for Teach2030's success.

supported by

Coach

You will co-ordinate WEEKLY school CPD sessions, support colleagues with course participation and help teachers to develop their skills and confidence.
